A few technical points

- All lines are muted throughout the webinar

- Engage using the chat
  - Select CHAT
  - ✓ all participants and attendees

- Use the Q/A for to submit your questions

- This webinar will be recorded; We will send you the slides, recording, & resources early next week.

CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL ASSOCIATION

KEEPING KIDS SAFE: HEALTH CARE'S ROLE IN ADDRESSING COMMUNITY VIOLENCE

JUNE 11, 2026

CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL ASSOCIATION

"The first national cross-sector youth gun violence prevention campaign bringing together health care and business"

AGREE TO AGREE CAMPAIGN

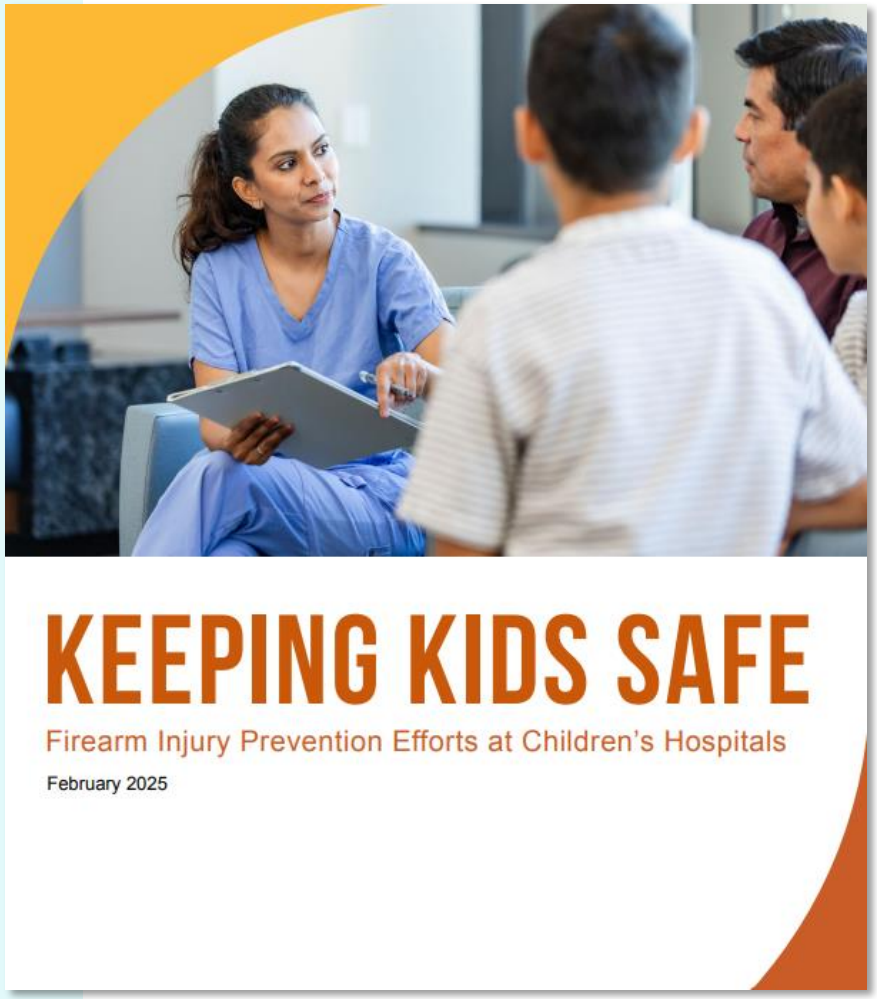

AgreeToAgree.org

CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL ASSOCIATION

KEEPING KIDS SAFE REPORT

- 12 articles – commentaries, Q&As, blogs, case studies
- Four webinars – scope, safe storage conversations, violence intervention programs

https://www.childrenshospitals.org/firearmsafety

SUICIDE PREVENTION

Launched Preventing Youth Suicide Peer Learning Exchange

- Webinars featuring hospital-led strategies and lessons learned
- Opportunities to dig deeper through follow-up discussions
- A multidisciplinary online community to seek feedback and peer resources
- Curated articles, tools, and resources grounded in evidence-based care
- Support from CHA staff to connect you to people and resources
- Ways to highlight your hospital or community's work in suicide care and prevention

childrenshospitals.org/suicideprevention

CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL ASSOCIATION

Presenters

Sara Burnett

Senior director, community relations and advocacy, Le Bonheur Children's

Anissa Cooper. MSN, RN

Trauma program director, Le Bonheur Children's Hospital

Regan Williams, MD, MS

Medical director, professor of surgery and pediatrics, University of Tennessee Health Science Center, Le Bonheur Children's Hospital